This one that you're listening is the original and hopefully enchanting soundtrack of the theatrical adaptation of William Shakespeare's "Love's Labour's Lost" written and directed by Marco V. Pogliaghi and staged by the "Associazione LA SILLOGE no profit".

The soundtrack was recorded on Digital Versatile Disk DVD audio and sampled at 32bits in order to preserve the quality of sound and respect the original ideas of the Author. This music is available also in MP3/320bps and CD/16bits/48KHz downloadable under Creative Common License from Jamendo website.

The Author wish to thank Valentin Nait at Jamendo and SafeCreative Staff for the assistance during publication; many thanks to Ciro Guastaferrro of 3G for printing the inlay booklet and advertising posters. Infinite thanks to Manuel Innocenti for the astonishing cover concept and logo.

Music written, designed and performed with Steinberg Cubase 9.5 Professional & Halion 6 & Halion Symphonic Orchestra & Quantum Leap Symphonic Choir & Quantum Leap Pianos Platinum on iMac Computer. Post produced and mastered with Adobe Audition.
